ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR M.TECH

The candidates seeking admissions to 1st Semester of Master of Technology programme shall have passed B.E examination of KBN Engineering College or any other recognized University / Institute. The candidates should have secured not less than 50% of marks in aggregate of all the year of degree examination.

The candidates who have completed their degree examination through distance modes of education from any University are not eligible to M.Tech Course.

The Candidate should be GATE qualified or should have appeared for Entrance Examinations conducted by the Authority recognized by the Government (PGCET) or by KBNU.

For a Foreign degree equivalence certificate issued by Association of Indian University (AIU) is essential

The candidates who have qualified in the GATE examination in appropriate branch of Engineering are exempted from entrance examination and are given preference.

If the sufficient number of GATE candidate are not available the seat shall be allotted from the candidates qualified in the Entrance Examination.